

2.6.4

Presence and periodicity of parent-teachers meetings, remedial measures undertaken and outcome analysis.

Parent-Teachers meeting is conducted on regular basis by the institution.

For first year students parent- principal - Teachers meeting is conducted during academic/ hostel admission process.

First parent's meeting is conducted with principal on the day of admission. Principal describe all rules & regulations of institution to parents.

Parents of first year student are then invited for induction program in which parent meeting is conducted with teacher of each departments. Parents are informed about detail course and also informed about rules and regulations of college/hostel. A verbal & written consent is taken from parents about the punishment/ penalty for misbehavior of a student. Institute's "Code of Conduct for Students" is also distributed in this meeting.

Parents of students who are having low performance in class so called slow performer and are regularly absent for lectures are called & parent's meeting is organized with their allotted mentors. & finally with the principal sir.

After preliminary exam students who have scored less than 50% or get failed in more than two subjects are called and matter is discussed with their parents by teachers. Also parents of students who are irregular and have less than 75% attendance in theory and practical/ Clinics are called for the meeting. Minutes of meeting are written in Parent - teacher meeting register & signed by principal.

Principal sir can call parents of student any time after gating any grievances against him or her. Teachers of respective classes solve the problem with the help of allotted mentor of the student.

After Covid-19 pandemic institute started organizing online meeting with parents at list twice in year. Various problems are discussed in this meeting.

Teachers of respective classes attend this meeting. Minutes of meetings are written in Parent-Teacher meeting proceeding book.
